

Captain Michael Higgins

Captain Michael Higgins commissioned in May 2016. Upon graduation of The Basic School and MOS training, he was designated a Signals Intelligence Officer. He then reported to 1st Radio Battalion as the Virtual Signals-Intelligence Operations Center Platoon Commander. In December 2017, he joined the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit as the Radio Battalion Detachment's Assistant Officer in Charge and deployed from July 2018 through February 2019. After redeployment, Captain Higgins returned to 1st Radio Battalion and served as the Executive Officer for Company C. In July 2019, he reported to 1st Marine Raider Support Battalion as the Direct Support Team-Delta Officer in Charge and deployed from July 2020 to January 2021 with Marine Special Operations Company Delta in support of Operation INHERENT RESOLVE as the Company S-2. He currently serves as the 1st Marine Raider Support Battalion Intelligence Officer. His personal decoration includes the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, and the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.