

Sergeant Corey L. White Jr

Motor Transport Organics Chief, Combat Logistics Company 33

Sergeant White Jr was born in Jackson, New Jersey on 4 August 1999. He enlisted in the Marine Corps on 16 April 2023, and attended recruit training at MCRD Parris Island, South Carolina. After graduation in July of 2023, he attended the Marine Combat Training, School of Infantry at Camp Geiger, North Carolina, and follow-on military occupational specialty school, Automotive Maintenance Technician Basic Course, Camp Johnson, North Carolina. In January 2024, he was promoted to Lance Corporal.

Upon graduation, he reported as a Lance Corporal to Combat Logistics Company 33, Combat Logistics Regiment 35, 3D Marine Logistics Group, Marine Corps Base Hawaii, Oahu, Hawaii where he serve as Automotive Maintenance Technician. In January 2025, he was promoted to Corporal.

In January 2025, he completed the Hazardous Materials/Waste Course earning the Military Occupational Specialty 8056. Since then he has served as the Hazardous Material Shop Level Coordinator for the Motor transport Maintenance Platoon.

In April 2025, he attended and completed Martial Arts Instructor Course 54-25 earning the Military Occupational Specialty 0916. Since then he has trained and advanced several marines up to their next respective belt level.

In November 2025, he was meritoriously promoted to Sergeant. He is now currently serving as the Motor Transport Organics Chief.

ENCLOSURE (1)

Sergeant Corey L. White JR.
NCO of the Year, 3d MLG