

Mr. John J. Guenther Award Marine Corps Intelligence Civilian of the Year 2022

Mr. Andrei Stolyarchuk

Fluent in Russian and Persian Farsi/Dari, Mr. Andrei Stolyarchuk enlisted in the Marine Corps from 2007-2012. On active duty, he deployed to Afghanistan as a Signals Support Team leader; served as a Russian linguist in Company I, Marine Corps Support Battalion; and served as the Radio Frequency Training Lead with 3d Radio Battalion. Following his Marine Corps service, he deployed as a linguist supporting the Army in Afghanistan, Kuwait, Syria, and Tajikistan. Joining Command Element Intelligence Division in 2018, he oversees integration of the Intelligence Broadcast Receiver and advanced signals intelligence analysis focused on accelerated kill chains and battlespace awareness. Most recently, he deployed to Poland as a Russian linguist in support of the Army's 82d Airborne Division as part of the U.S. response to Russia's invasion of Ukraine. He holds a Bachelor of Arts history degree from the University of Minnesota with a concentration on Central Asia and International Relations.
