

Yurandol Thompson, PhD, LPC, NCC

Yurandol Thompson, PhD, LPC, NCC is a Counselor with the Military and Family Life Counseling (MFLC) program. The MFLC program assists service members, their families and survivors with flexible non-medical counseling when and where needed. Military and family life counselors are highly-qualified professionals trained to understand the unique challenges you encounter and deliver face-to-face counseling services, as well as briefings and presentations to the military community both on and off the installation. Services offered through the Military and Family Life Counseling Program are confidential, not reported to the command, and do not impact a service member's security clearance. Exceptions to privacy include duty to warn, suspected family maltreatment (domestic violence, child abuse or neglect), harm to self or others, and illegal activity.
